GREET'S SUN IN GAY CHARLESTOWN
Why There Is So Much Noise in Charlestoten To-day*

The comic section of the BOSTON SUN-DAY AMERICAN is the funniest on earth. Little Jimmy, the dear little fellow, finds a new way to annoy his father—and succeeds in doing so. Mead, the Katzenjammer, the Hoolligans (Gus sees the King, but the others...), Foxy Grandpa and the boys, Lulu and Leander, and Sam do their best to the world and humanity with a

for Policyholders

Grover Cleveland comes out with a sanctimonious letter about the interests of the policyholders.

Ryan is not the kind of a man to appoint dummies that won't do what he tells them to. His record proves that.

She Discovers That the People Who Love Us the Most Are Those That Most Afflict Us

"Unless it is the batch of family anecdotes," responded the Stenographer. "I've listened to my family repertoire millions

"You may talk about your heroines and your female martyrs—about your Grace Darlings and Florence Nightingales and Joan of Arcs, and your other

"Did you ever think what an awful temptation it must be to a woman who is self-control under great provocation. It's a sad thing," said the Strong-rapher, "that the people who really love us the best afflict us the most."

"Well," returned the Bookkeeper, "there's one comfort. We break about

"And that's no joke," agreed the Stenographer. "People speak of it being sad for families to break up, but most
